

Ratified Clubs & Groups 2017–2018

NAME OF CLUB	CONTACT	DESCRIPTION
Quest Writers' Society	suzannah.guthrie@questu.ca , hannah.yerington@questu.ca , hannah.mendro@questu.ca	The Quest Writer's society is an intentional community that seeks to create wildly and bravely. We keep each other accountable and hold each other to our personal artistic standards. We aim to create a space that is comfortable and inviting, that encourages consistent creative productivity and is always well stocked with tea and caring companionship. We are a place for all those who love ink smudged hands, the sound of typing and communing with a good cup of chamomile tea.
Quest LARP	sawyer.plato@questu.ca joseph.amodio@questu.ca andrew.mckean@questu.ca	Allow students to become the person they have always dreamed of being by dressing up in custom and duking it out on the battle field.
Quest Adventure Club	heather.waterous@questu.ca ; wyatt.stevens@questu.ca ; amaya.cherian-hall@questu.ca	Squamish is the outdoor recreation capital of Canada. Our mission is to increase the accessibility of this playground for Quest students of all physical abilities, experience levels and economic standings. As a club, we strive to create a sense of community among our participants.
Photography Club	emily.glasberg@questu.ca	The goal of the Photography club is to facilitate, support and encourage the photographic arts on campus
Tea Club!	charles.seibert@questu.ca	Drink delicious tea. Learn about delicious tea.
Board Game Club	charles.seibert@questu.ca	Find fun games that are able to be played and enjoyed by anyone who likes games.
Quest Squash Club	parker.carruthers@questu.ca	Promote and facilitate squash play on campus.
Student Environmental Committee	samantha.leigh@questu.ca	New structure for promoting environmental sustainability on Quest campus.

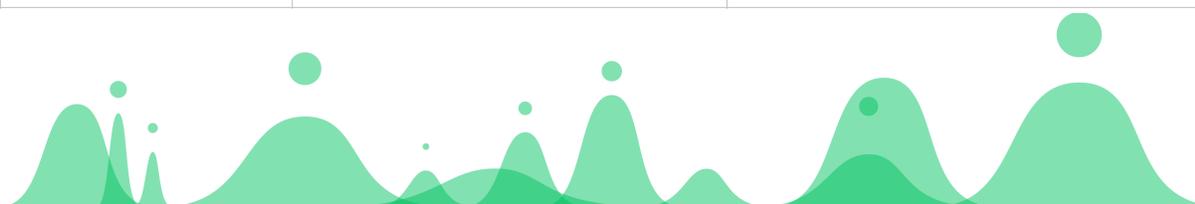

Aerial Skills at Quest	maya.cook@questu.ca	To provide students of Quest with access to aerial silks on campus.
Razzle Dazzle Whamo Bamo Club	sawyer.plato@questu.ca	To surprise and amaze people with the excellence of humanity.
Fiber Arts Club	franka.hentze@questu.ca	Bring together people, learn a new skill, and connect with the community.
Take a Break Club	lexis.kepler@questu.ca	Take a break club hosts small-sized events which fosters community building at Quest. The small events allows students a set event where they can meet new peers and create friendships.
Social Dance Club	kailyn.pritchard@questu.ca , jack.gralla@questu.ca	The purpose of our club is to offer students the opportunity to learn and practice a variety of social dance styles, including latin, swing, and blues/fusion dance.
Entrepreneurship Club	katrina.verigin@questu.ca , min.park@questu.ca , arnaud.michel@questu.ca	To get students involved in the local entrepreneurial community, get exposure to business thinking/education/training, connect students to others with similar interests.
Quest Community Garden	christian.ahrenkiel@questu.ca , lucie.barnett@questu.ca	Facilitating activities relating to the Quest community garden.
Quick! Improv	jacob.richardson@questu.ca	Quick! Improv exists to provide a creative outlet for theatre on campus. We have existed for over 5 years and have been successful in maintaining an interested group of participants throughout multiple generations of students.
Quest Jewish Alliance	hannah.yerington@questu.ca	To offer a home base for Jewish ceremony and celebration on campus.
Quest Wildcrafting	abwatson@questu.ca	To facilitate interactions between students and the environment through the discovery of food and medicine in the local world. This club focuses on respecting the environment and emphasizes the importance of respectful harvesting practices.
Quest Christian Fellowship	benjamin.Shanafelt@questu.ca sebastian.Hubbard@questu.ca Herieth.Ringo@questu.ca	To create a safe group and meeting place for individuals in all stages of christianity. We worship, discuss the Bible and discuss other aspects of christian life.
The Mark Magazine	ian.greer@questu.ca	To spread news on campus.

Quest League of Legends Club	jacob.richardson@questu.ca	The Quest LoL Club competes with other universities as a varsity team in a competitive league known as the "Collegiate Star League." The goal is to create a community of individuals who share a passion for the game!
Campus EMS	campus.ems@questu.ca	A 24 hour a day, 7 day per week confidential emergency medical service for Quest University.
Momenta: Quest's Academic Journal	momentasubmissions@gmail.com	To present the most exceptional work of Quest students through a rigorous academic process.
Quest's Political Action Coalition (QPAC)	elizabeth.mumm@questu.ca , lauren.byrne@questu.ca , hannah.mendro@questu.ca , joseph.mckernan@questu.ca	The Quest Political Action Coalition (QPAC) is a student group at Quest University Canada that aims to build the capacity for political action among Quest students by providing information and facilitating organization.
Astronomy and Physics Club	lauren.bauman@questu.ca	The physics and astronomy club strives to support and facilitate activities related to physics and astronomy among students at Quest University Canada. We work to adapt to student's interests, and have offered a variety of activities from current event discussions to building instrumentation. No prior experience in astronomy or physics is required!
Homies and Shalomies	tala.schlossberg@questu.ca , fanny.dunner@questu.ca	Homies and Shalomies is a jewish student life group with the goal of creating a space for Jewish students on campus to meet each other and participate in cultural events. Homies and Shalomies also encourages non-Jews to attend and learn about Jewish life in a fun way!
Juggling @ Quest	chosenabigailbeatr.canlas@questu.ca renato.torres@questu.ca	To provide an open space where everyone, students, faculty and staff, can come and play! Quest folks may be free to come and learn how to juggle, and develop symbiotic relationships with one another not just among peers, but intergenerationally as well. The goal is to provide another platform of education that is outside the classroom and without a hierarchical structure of teacher and students. It will be a place where everyone can learn from each other without these boundaries.

Femmes in STEM	cameron.friend@questu.ca , lexis.Kepler@questu.ca	Provide a space of support and action for womyn* in STEM fields and classes within the contexts both of Quest and of our lives outside of Quest. We'd like to focus on fostering a supportive environment for those occupying multiple minority groups within stem fields.
Let's Talk Science	emery.urquhart@questu.ca and erin.loukras@questu.ca	The goal of Let's Talk Science is to bring Quest University Students to different schools within the area and show Squamish students from elementary to high school how science can be a fun and interesting. It is a great way for students to interact with Quest and meet college students who are pursuing jobs within science. We will be going to at least 2 different classes a month throughout the school year.
Quest Multi-faith Group	sarah.maronick@questu.ca , luce.barnett@questu.ca	Celebrating the diversity of beliefs at Quest, central meeting point is the Multifaith Room on Ossa 5th. Various events or gatherings relating to spirituality within/outside the room are supported by the group and its members.
Quest Birding Collective	tully.henke@questu.ca	The purpose of this club is to support ornithology on the Quest campus as well as student involvement in the Squamish birding community. It will provide education in field science as well as data collection for student projects and for the Squamish Environment Society.
Movie Tuesday	claire.macmurray@questu.ca	Show movies every week on Tuesday with themes changing every month. The goal is to give the opportunity to students on campus to unite once per week and enjoy/discover movies together. It is just all around for the enjoyment of watching good movies and bonding over our love the seventh art.
Bee Club	cameron.nielsen@questu.ca	To engage students with the local apiaries on campus and educate them about the craft of beekeeping.
Quest Coast Sound Radio (QCSR)	amelia.schmidt@questu.ca , suzannah.kortenhof@questu.ca , sadie.Ainsworth@questu.ca , emily.weber@questu.ca	QCSR is a student run, non profit radio that currently functions as a website where you can go access both playlists and podcasts. Our aim is to provide unique Quest Coast Sound to the student body as well as the larger Squamish radio.

Quest Rugby	samantha.dill@questu.ca , joshua.Stephenson@questu.ca , bryn.Koehn@questu.ca	The quest rugby team is committed to promoting rugby, developing skills, and having fun doing it.
Water Time	alicia.saunders@questu.ca	To provide weekly shuttles to the pool. I can drive a quest van down and provide swim workout plan or just the time to relax in the hot tub.
Le club de Français	layla.haddad@questu.ca , anika.Watson@questu.ca	The French club at Quest have started before as a French table were students used to meet once a week every Friday at lunch in the cafeteria to speak French. This year the French table would like to extends beyond meeting once a week and be officially a club on campus. We hope to organize more events on campus to encourage students either beginners or fluent in the language to engage, learn and have fun while doing that. For example, having a French karaoke night, cooking a French cuisine together, and having a French movie night.
Body Justice	hannah.mendro@questu.ca , lauren.byrne@questu.ca , rebecca.landsberg@questu.ca , kennedy.Marschdorf@questu.ca	Body Justice meets weekly to foster peer support, learning, and action around issues of body justice. Our goal is that together we learn about, act with, and hold each other accountable to anti-oppressive, intersectional, and accessible principles.
Chemistry Club	devon.mitchell@questu.ca , emily.bison@questu.ca , emily.lachenmayer@questu.ca	Our goal is to promote chemistry on the Quest University campus. We are passionate about chemistry and want to share that with other people.
Pre-Health Journal Discussion Group	claire.macmurray@questu.ca , sophia.mcgregor@questu.ca	The purpose of our club is to review popular topics in medical and health science and discuss recent journal publications.
Quest Tune Squad	madelyn.read@questu.ca	The Quest TuneSquad releases a collaborative student-written, recorded, and produced studio album every school year. We provide the opportunity for students to collaborate on creating and recording music as well as offer lessons and tutorials on how to use the on-campus recording facilities. We welcome musicians with all levels of experience and are happy to provide the resources and support to make your musical goals a reality.

Fashion & Sewing Club	nina.aganza@questu.ca	To offer an opportunity for students to either learn how to sew or to broaden their sewing skills. This is a place where students can express their sense of style through a hands on experience.
Chess Club	robert.kirkby@questu.ca	Quest's Chess Club is an inclusive and ever expanding group that is looking for players of all skill levels ready to test their mental athleticism.

